

ASSIGNMENT FOR CHAPTER-5

Human Capital:-

Human capital is a concept used by economists and social scientists to designate personal attributes considered useful in the production process.

It comprises employee knowledge skills known good health and education recruitment.

Recruitment:-

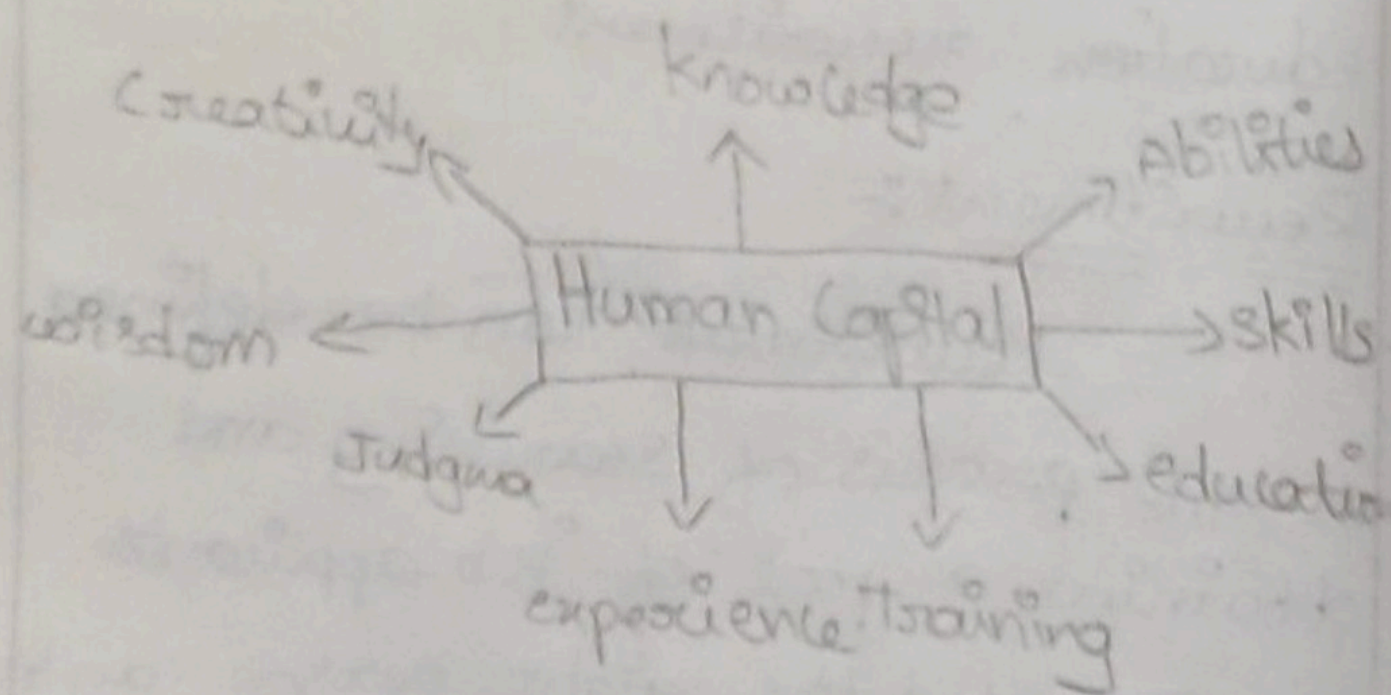

Recruitment can be defined as the process of searching and obtaining a pool of job applicants and from that the right person can be selected external skill demand, labour market demographic profile political & legal factors company's image

internal factors is the organisation mission vision size planning budget
Human resource planning recruitment

Recruitment methods:

Promotion.

Job posting

Human Development Report (1990)

The Human Development Report is a biennial publication that is significant evidence and for policy. It is a publication that is a world country that is a human development

Chapter 2: The World Report

The world report of 1990
is a report of 1990
which is the modern human development. It is a report of the development of human capabilities and the strengthening of human rights and fundamental, democracy, and children's rights in India, health, education

→ schools in India education

→ the PRAO experience

→ UNESCO future of education of institute aims to rethink education
and shape the future

Human capital Development -

→ considers education

→ increase labour productivity

→ human well-being

→ capital treats human being

→ any investment in education
output of goods and services

Human development mainly education and health imbalance human capital

...and ... the ... of ...
... in ... the ...
... the ... the ...
... the ...

... the ... the ...
... the ... the ...
... the ... the ...
... the ... the ...

Human Rights Education

Education for all of ...
... the ... the ...
... the ... the ...

Country	HD Rank (2017)	Change from 2016
Russia	62	-3
Sri Lanka	72	1
Brazil	84	0
China	85	2
South Africa	114	1
India	131	-2
Bangladesh	133	1
Nepal	142	1
Pakistan	154	0

THE WOMAN OF THE WEST

Education will be directed to the development of human individuality and to the strengthening of the human spirit and the development of the human mind and body.
The development of human individuality
and the strengthening of the human spirit is the basis of education.

— THE END —